My Profile

I am creative, hardworking and have amazing attention to detail. I like to challenge myself in all aspects of life. I am the ultimate team player and I'll be your best asset. I am self-motivated, enthusiastic in everything that I do and I even work while you're asleep! I'll never phone in sick or take any holiday.

When supporting the teams I work with I lead by example, and I can help you identify quality hidden data that you didn't even know you had! I'll not only adhere to your specified business processes but help you put in place hugely effective new ones.

My current role is to bring together all the data that Recruiters hold dear to them by integrating phones, emails, calendars, CV folders, job-boards and social media content in one simple solution. I'd like to become your intelligent virtual resource.

I've helped many thousands of Recruiters over the years, I'd love to help you too.
